

Results of students satisfaction survey with internship
Master in Translational Biomedical Research
Course 2024-2025

23 answered questionnaires 66% participation answer

Your welcome process and Integration has been adequated.

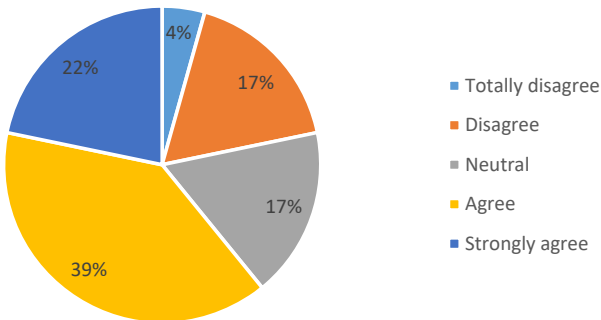

The formative project and the tasks carried out during the practicum were related to the classes.

The attention given by your practicum director has been adequated.

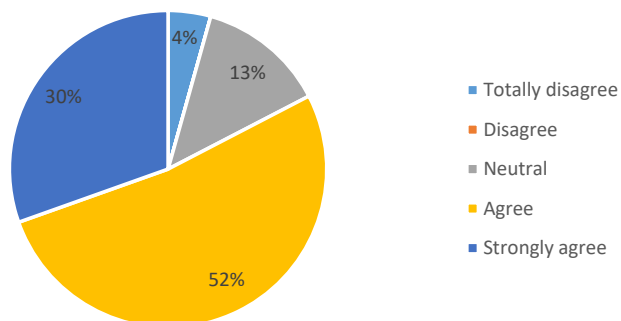

The attention given by your academic director in VHIR has been adequated.

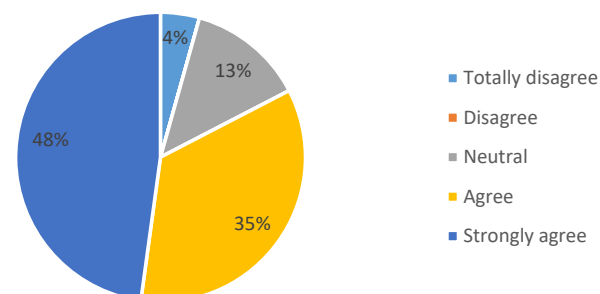

Results of students satisfaction survey with internship
Master in Translational Biomedical Research
Course 2024-2025

The management and support given by the Academic Affairs Office has been adequated.

Do you consider that you have developed professional skills in the practicum that will improve your future integration into the labour market?

The overall assesstment of the practicum is:

